

NIRMALA COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
Atmakur, Mangalagiri, Guntur (Dt), Andhra Pradesh, India

PHARM D COURSE PROGRAMME OUTCOMES (PO'S)

1. The Course imparts clear instructions about disease condition, epidemiology, therapy, adverse reactions, drug-drug interactions, eradication and documentation.
2. Provide creative solutions by collaborating with other health-care communities.
3. Act as an effective leader in a variety of professional settings.
4. Aware the public health care knowledge about the effective and safe use of medicines.
5. Write, interpret, and communicate in a scientific and effective manner.
6. Apply critical thinking skills to drug, poison, clinical studies, pharmaceutical care and practise, including research, application, analysis, creativity, synthesis, and evaluation of information, data, and documentation.
7. Demonstrate understanding of pharmacy practice, as well as the capacity to obtain, manage, and utilise current information for problem-solving, patient-specific, population-specific, evidence-based treatment, and to ensure safe and optimal pharmacotherapy results.
8. Incorporate ethical and moral ideals into personal and professional pursuit.
9. Identify and put in place cost-effective patient care and resource management strategies.
10. Participate in the establishment of drug use policy by identifying the laws and regulations that apply to drug discovery and development, distribution, sale, and safe use of medications.