REMEDIAL CLASSES OBJECTIVES

Students with learning difficulties have the same psychological needs and characteristics as other students. some of them are as follows:

1. Less ability to organize their perceptions
2. Less ability to comprehend, abstract ideas and concepts
3. Poor memory
4. Poor level of motivation
5. Short span of attention in work situations
6. Associated behavioural problems
7. Encounters of failure they tend to have low expectations of themselves and, also have low aspirations.
8. Parents background of the student
9. The pupil's peer groups
10. Telugu medium background.

The ultimate aim of remedial teaching is to help pupils who have fallen behind to learn to the best of their ability and to bring them back into the mainstream classes as far as possible.

REMEDIAL CLASSES OBJECTIVES

Students with learning difficulties have the same psychological needs and characteristics as other students. Some of them are as follows:

1. Less ability to organize their perceptions
2. Less ability to comprehend, abstract ideas and concepts.
3. Poor memory
4. Poor level of motivation
5. Short span of attention in work situations
6. Associated behavioural problems.
7. Encounters of failure they tend to have low expectations of themselves and, also have low aspirations.
8. Parents background of the student
9. The pupils' peer groups.
10. Telugu medium background.

The ultimate aim of remedial teaching is to help pupils who have fallen behind to learn to the best of their ability and to bring them back into the mainstream classes as far as possible.

REMEDIAL CLASSES OBJECTIVES

Students with learning difficulties have the same psychological needs and characteristics as other students. Some of them are as follows:

1. Less ability to organize their perceptions
2. Less ability to comprehend, abstract ideas and concepts.
3. Poor memory
4. Poor level of motivation
5. Short span of attention in work situations
6. Associated behavioural problems.
7. Encounters of failure they tend to have low expectations of themselves and, also have low aspirations.
8. Parents background of the student
9. The pupils' peer groups.
10. Telugu medium background.

The ultimate aim of remedial teaching is to help pupils who have fallen behind to learn to the best of their ability and to bring them back into the mainstream classes as far as possible.

REMEDIAL CLASSES

EVALUATION REPORT

- It was observed that the listening, learning & communication skills have been improved for the students who attended the remedial classes.
- Yet, few students were found that there is a need of some additional support to be provided for respective subjects to improve their overall performance. So, the following students are provided with important questions in each subject to promote to next semester i.e B.Pharm I Yr II sem. (2017-18).

REMEDIAL CLASSES OBJECTIVES

Students with learning difficulties have the same psychological needs and characteristics as other students. Some of them are as follows:

1. Less ability to organize their perceptions
2. Less ability to comprehend, abstract ideas and concepts.
3. Poor memory
4. Poor level of motivation
5. Short span of attention in work situations
6. Associated behavioural problems.
7. Encounters of failure they tend to have low expectations of themselves and, also have low aspirations.
8. Parents background of the student
9. The pupils' peer groups.
10. Telugu medium background.

The ultimate aim of remedial teaching is to help pupils who have fallen behind to learn to the best of their ability and to bring them back into the mainstream classes as far as possible.

REMEDIAL CLASSES

EVALUATION REPORT

- It was observed that the listening, learning & communication skills have been improved for the students who attended the remedial classes.
- Yet, few students were found that there is a need of some additional support to be provided for respective subjects to improve their overall performance. So, the following students are provided with important questions in each subject to promote to next academic year i.e 2018-19
