7.2 – Best Practices 2019-20 Academic year

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

(A) Women grievance Cell established for the purpose of to implement a mechanism for counseling and guidance for the girl students, to redress their grievances and to educate them about women empowerment. To plan and execute a mechanism for organizing awareness programmes, motivational talks including visits to the public / government run women guidance cells, to expose them to various opportunities available to women in particular in the professional field of pharmacy. Regarding the Support and encouragement of girl students that to assist in applying scholarships and financial assistance from the Central/State government / NGO. As in our institution more than 75 percent of girls students are studying, an awareness programme was conducted and delivered talk on “Women Empowerment” by Dr. A. Shantha Kumari, Professor, Department of Pharmaceutical Analysis, Nirmala College of Pharmacy on the occasion of International Women’s day celebrations held on 8th March, 2020. In addition to that, our institution also organized Awareness programme on “Model code of conduct and eve teasing”. The women grievance cell also conduct special classes for slow learners of girl students. The cell creates awareness among the girls on behaviour, discipline, moral values, and social responsibilities through the Awareness programmes. The institution is also organized a awareness programme on to improve behavior skills, co-ordination skills, moral values, etc., for I Year B.Pharm, Pharm D fresher’s (Girls).

(B) Institutional Faculty/Student Development Programmes: The institutional faculty members are participated and presented the research in various National/ International Webinars/Seminars/ conferences/ workshops and symposia organized by host institution and also other Universities and organizations during year of 2019-20. These are all very much helped and supported to the Teaching faculty to improve their research skills, teaching skills and to enhance the subject and research knowledge of our UG, PG Ph.D students. The programmes like off line or online which we organize and faculty participations would enhances the current knowledge, novel concepts, novel techniques and methods. The organized workshops will provide the direction of teaching, discussion of hypothetical situations, trying to solve moral dilemma. The National/ International Webinars/Seminars/ conferences participation and presentation gives an opportunity to the faculty to broaden the thinking and knowledge by listening to new ideas and theories delivered by experts in our field. In this regard we are happy to share that, a total number of 241 National/ International Webinars/Seminars/ conferences/ workshops and symposia.
